— ABOUT US —

Independent Loss Adjusting Services to the short-term Insurance Industry.

AdjustPro CC is an independent insurance loss adjusting firm founded by Mr Alison Jafta, an experienced and enterprising black entrepreneur with over 46 years of experience in the insurance industry, including 32 years in loss adjusting.

Mr Jafta's career dates back to 1980 and includes experience with leading insurance companies, as well as serving as Claims Manager at Price Forbes Insurance Brokers (Chemoil), where he was responsible for managing claims for SASOL. He is also an affiliate member of the Institute of Loss Adjusters (Membership No. 1103610602).

As a 100% black-owned company, AdjustPro is committed to delivering professional, ethical, and independent loss adjusting services to the short-term insurance industry. The business is supported by a dedicated team of professionals focused on delivering accurate assessments, efficient claims handling, and responsive service across a wide range of sectors.

AdjustPro is recognised for its proactive approach and its ability to respond effectively to the evolving demands of the insurance and loss adjusting environment. The company remains firmly guided by its core values of integrity, independence, and innovation in all aspects of its operations.

As the business has grown, it has expanded its internal capabilities to offer a broader range of services, enabling it to deliver practical, solutions-driven support underpinned by deep industry knowledge and experience.

At its core, AdjustPro combines technical expertise with a thorough understanding of the insurance sector, providing informed guidance and effective solutions tailored to each client's requirements.

VISION & MISSION

Our mission is to position AdjustPro as a trusted and preferred partner for comprehensive loss adjusting solutions. We are committed to leveraging our skills, experience, and industry insight to deliver solutions that align with the specific needs of our clients.

Our primary focus is to develop a thorough understanding of your business, operations, and risk environment. Through careful planning, active involvement, and ongoing engagement with key stakeholders, we ensure that our solutions are practical, relevant, and tailored to your requirements.

We believe we are well positioned to support your organisation based on the following:

Our client-focused approach is designed to understand and meet your current needs, while remaining adaptable to future requirements

Our solution-driven methodology emphasises value creation and is tailored to evolve alongside your business

We aim to build long-term partnerships, positioning ourselves as a trusted business partner rather than simply a service provider

SERVICE OFFERING

Considering our practical experience in claims handling, technical and legal knowledge of short-term insurance practice, underwriting and loss adjusting, we strive and purpose ourselves to successfully handle losses relating to:

- Fire and Allied perils
- Business Interruption
- Engineering and Mechanical Breakdown
- Crime classes
- Accidental / All Risks
- Property and Material Damage type losses
- Sectional Title Insurance
- Electronic equipment
- Goods in Transit Insurance
